

Liquid Avatar to Launch Creator Program with Iconic Comic Book & Manga Artists

Customized Liquid Avatars to be supported by blockchain-based Digital Certificates of Authenticity

Toronto, Canada, June 23, 2020 – KABN Systems NA Holdings Corp. (CSE:KABN) (the “Company” or “KABN” or “KABN North America”), a Canadian Fintech company that specializes in continuous online identity verification, management and monetization, is pleased to announce that its Liquid Avatar platform (www.liquidavatar.com) has launched its Creator program together with leading pop-culture, comic book, manga, anime and other iconic artists to design and develop a continuous series of digital icons that consumers can acquire to display and share with their Liquid Avatar.

Liquid Avatars are high quality digital icons for personal or business use, that emulate a user’s digital “wallet” and “keyring” allowing them to manage and control their digital identity, credentials and valuables. Powered by KABN ID with its biometrics, including facial recognition and other security features, Liquid Avatars can be shared with 3rd parties on a permission basis to verify identity without exposing any sensitive data. There is no cost for a consumer to create or manage their Liquid Avatar and use the platform.

With the evolving macroenvironment driving an increased amount of time spent online, KABN believes that digital identity will become more important as users look to work, play, educate, game and shop virtually and will need to protect, manage and control the use of their digital identity.

The Liquid Avatar Creator program will feature original and licensed Illustrator and Signature Series digital icons which will be available as one of a kind, limited edition or collectable set from legendary and emerging pop culture Artists for sale in the Liquid Avatar Marketplace (www.liquidavatarmarketplace.com), (coming Q3 2020).

Each Illustrator and Signature Series Liquid Avatar will also be supported by a Digital Certificate of Authenticity (“DCA”), based on blockchain technology developed by the KABN Network. DCA’s allow for the issuance, recording, management and transfer of digital assets using IBM’s Hyperledger Fabric.

To support the development and launch of the Creator program, provide Art Direction, and liaise with Artists and the industry, KABN has partnered with 30+ year industry veteran, Mariano Nieceza. Mariano is President and Publisher of Apex Comics Group, Inc., writer and Executive Producer of the award-winning digital comic series, William Shatner’s War Chronicles, and the illustrator of the award-winning graphic novel, Stan Lee’s GOD Woke. He has worked in writing, illustration, design, and art direction in the digital and print industry for Marvel Entertainment, Disney, Malibu, Fler, Paramount, and Panasonic. At Marvel, he held positions as Special Projects Editor and Senior Art Director. Mariano has a BA in Art from Rutgers University, an MA in Illustration from Syracuse University, and an MFA in Illustration from Hartford University.

“We are excited to have Mariano on board to better engage with the Artist community. Companies like Epic Games that have launched free-to-play games like Fortnite, have generated over $2 Billion a year in online revenue with much of that coming from art-based cosmetic skins and other digital items,” said Ben Kessler, CEO. “Our Liquid Avatar program is positioned to give people a wide range of choices on how they want to digitally present themselves and the involvement of the professional Artist community is going to provide unique opportunities to personalize their online presence while creating new sources of revenue for KABN.”

Liquid Avatar is developing event-driven icons for online groups, events and conference to create incentives for participation. Liquid Avatar also has other gamification features like badges to create recognition and rewards.

KABN believes that ownership of identity is a basic human right and individuals should be the primary beneficiary of any use of their identity. KABN North America generates revenue by providing users with high value services and delivering permission-based offers that fit their aggregated public data profiles through KABN KASH and the KABN Visa Card. KABN never rents, sells or provides data to outside parties without permission, and complies with jurisdictional privacy rules and regulations.

Over the coming weeks, KABN will begin its rollout of products and programs, initially on an invitation-only basis to its customers, social media, gaming and its network partners.
